Time Bandits is a Terry Gilliam produced, directed and co-written box office hit, released in 1981. It is also critically acclaimed, alongside being a commercial success. The film was co-produced by Handmade Films.

Handmade Films was founded by George Harrison, producing iconic cult classic films such as MONTY PYTHON'S LIFE OF BRIAN, THE LONG GOOD FRIDAY, WITHNAIL AND I, MONA LISA, POW WOW HIGHWAY AND NUNS ON THE RUN. The company left an indelible mark on the British film industry.

A Handmade spokesperson stated 'We are delighted to be working with such well respected and successful partners on this exciting further Time Bandits adventure. We are also thrilled to be working once again with Terry Gilliam and building on the excellent relationship we already have with him.

Time Bandits is much loved and appeals to a multi generation audience. We are confident that this team will introduce this wonderful world to an even wider audience alongside meeting the expectations of longstanding fans.'
